#371 Now Thank We All Our God NUN DANKET

Martin Rinkart was a minister in the city of Eilenburg during the Thirty Years War. Apart from battles, lives were lost in great number during this time due to illnesses and disease spreading quickly throughout impoverished cities. In the Epidemic of 1637, Rinkart officiated at over four thousand funerals, sometimes fifty per day. In the midst of these horrors, it's difficult to imagine maintaining faith and praising God, and yet, that's exactly what Rinkart did. Sometime in the next twenty years, he wrote the hymn, "Now Thank We All Our God," originally meant to be a prayer said before meals. Rinkart could recognize that our God is faithful, and even when the world looks bleak, He is "bounteous" and is full of blessings, if only we look for them. Blessings as seemingly small as a dinner meal, or as large as the end of a brutal war and unnecessary bloodshed are all reasons to lift up our thanks to God, with our hearts, our hands, and our voices.

PSALTER LESSON

Matthew Little

Psalm 37:1-11: Do not fret because of the wicked; do not be envious of wrongdoers, for they will soon fade like the grass, and wither like the green herb. Trust in the LORD, and do good; so you will live in the land, and enjoy security. Take delight in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act. He will make your vindication shine like the light, and the justice of your cause like the noonday. Be still before the LORD, and wait patiently for him; do not fret over those who prosper in their way, over those who carry out evil devices. Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath. Do not fret--it leads only to evil. For the wicked shall be cut off, but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit the land. Yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more; though you look diligently for their place, they will not be there. But the meek shall inherit the land, and delight themselves in abundant prosperity.

Leader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
People: Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL LESSON

Rev. Dr. Berghuis

Luke 6:27-38: "But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.

"If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return. Your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

"Do not judge, and you will not be judged; do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap; for the measure you give will be the measure you get back."

Leader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
People: Thanks be to God!

*FELLOWSHIP HYMN

#272 They'll Know We Are Christians ST. BRENDAN'S

Peter Scholtes (1938-2009) Peter was born in Evanston, Illinois and grew up in Oak Park, where he attended Ascension School and Fenwick High School before studying at Quigley and St. Mary of the Lake-Mundelein seminaries. He earned his Master's in Adult Education and Organization Development at Boston University. Peter wrote the hymn "They'll Know We Are Christians by Our Love" while he was a parish priest at St. Brendan's on the South Side of Chicago in the 1960s. At the time, he was leading a youth choir out of the church basement and was looking for an appropriate song for a series of ecumenical, interracial events. When he couldn't find such a song, he wrote the now-famous hymn in a single day.

FAITHFULNESS

Written as a meditation on Lamentations 3:22-23, this text is one of the few hymns among the 1,200 poems by the Methodist Thomas O. Chisholm, writer and pastor that has gained much currency. The tune that appears here was composed especially for these words, and the pairing has proved enduring.

Art Show "Communion" by Jerome Stueart

Currently featured in Fellowship Hall, Jerome Stueart's art show, Communion, is a collection of new work that asks the question, What is Communion in the Life of the Church? While we know it is the bread and cup service we have at the first Sunday of each month, could it also be whenever we are together in fellowship as a church? Communion as community. The show features acrylic portraits of church members drinking tea and coffee together, a new acrylic portrait of the church building, and other scenes in acrylic or pen and ink from church life (the choir, the brick dedication). Prints can be ordered of everything in this show and 10% of the proceeds go to the church.
