*RESPONSIVE CALL TO WORSHIP

Rev. Jason Alspaugh, Leader

Leader: You who live in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, will say to the LORD,

People: "My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust."

Leader: Because you have made the LORD your refuge, the Most High your dwelling place,

People: no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent.

Leader: For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

People: On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.

Leader: You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot.

People: Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name.

Leader: When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble, I will rescue them and honor them.

People: With long life I will satisfy them, and show them my salvation.

(Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16)

*PROCESSIONAL HYMN

#169 Lord, Who Throughout These Forty Days
ST. FLAVIAN

Claudia Hernaman (1838-1898) was born in Surrey, England, and died in Brussels, Belgium. She was the daughter of an Anglican minister, and she married a minister who also served as a school inspector. Like so many other women hymn writers of the nineteenth century, she was devoted to the religious education of children. Toward this end, she wrote 150 hymns in several collections, some original and some translated from Latin.

Reading & Proclaiming God's Word

NEW TESTAMENT EPISTLE LESSON

Gina Greenwood

Romans 10:8b-13: "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Leader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.
People: Thanks be to God!

*GOSPEL LESSON

Rev. David Coggins

Leader: The Gospel of the Lord according to Luke.
People: Praise be to you, O Christ.

Luke 4:1-13: Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'"

Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'"

Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'"

Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Leader: For the Word of God in scripture, for the Word of God among us, for the Word of God within us.

People: Thanks be to God.

*THE FELLOWSHIP HYMN

#404 I Need Thee Every Hour
NEED

When this hymn was first published in 1873, this Bible verse was included underneath the title: "Without me ye can do nothing" (John 15:5 KJV). Each of the first four stanzas of this hymn dwells on a different facet of our dependence on God: our need for His peace, our inability to resist temptation alone, our need to find true meaning in life, and our desire to see God's promises fulfilled. The fifth stanza is an intense plea for God's presence.

How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place Johannes Brahms

How lovely is Thy dwelling place, O Lord of host, Thy dwelling place, O Lord of Hosts! For my soul it longeth, yea, fainteth, for the courts of the Lord. My soul and body crieth out, yea, for the living God. Best are they that dwell within thy house, they praise Thy name ever more.

What a Fellowship arr. Gilbert M. Martin

*What a fellowship, what a joy divine, leaning on the everlasting Arms!
What blessedness, what a peace of mine, leaning on the everlasting arms!
Leaning, safe and secure from all alarms. O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way, leaning on the everlasting arms, O how bright the path grows from day to day, leaning on the everlasting arms. What have I to dread, what have I to fear, leaning on the everlasting arms? I have blessed peace with the Lord so near, leaning on the everlasting arms.*

ACOLYTES ENTER ON LAST VERSE OF HYMN

*HYMN OF RESPONSE

#409 What a Friend We Have in Jesus
CONVERSE

Joseph Scriven was born in Ireland in 1820. He was educated at Trinity College in Dublin and was engaged to be married. The evening before their wedding, Scriven's fiancée drowned. This tragedy coupled with difficult family relationships, caused Joseph to begin following the practices and teachings of the Plymouth Brethren. Shortly after moving to Canada to become a teacher, Scriven became engaged to Eliza Roche.
Tragedy struck again and Eliza passed away from illness shortly before marriage. Joseph used the tragedies and hardships in life to empathize with the elderly and poor. Scriven used his time to saw wood for the stoves of those who were handicapped or elderly. Joseph wrote his famous hymn in 1855 to comfort his mother who still lived in Ireland. He did not seek to be noticed for it, and his authorship was only discovered by accident shortly before his death.
