THE RINGING OF THE CHIMES

A three-fold ringing of three signifies the presence of the triune God:
Creator, Christ, and Holy Spirit.

CALL TO WORSHIP & PRAYER Rev. Dr. Kent Berghuis

*OPENING HYMN #14 Eternal Father, Strong to Save
MELITA

The first three stanzas of this hymn appeal to the Trinity with Scripture passages where each person controlled the sea, imploring “O hear us when we cry to Thee for those in peril on the sea.” The first stanza refers to God's discourse with Job, in which the Lord asks, “Or who shut in the sea with doors when it burst out from the womb, when I ... said, ‘Thus far shall you come, and no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stayed?’” The second stanza refers to two occasions when Jesus calmed the raging sea: when He walked on the water and when He slept through a storm until His terrified disciples woke Him. The third stanza alludes to Creation, when “The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.” The final stanza summarizes the hymn and promises continued praise “from land and sea.”

Listening for the Word of God

OLD TESTAMENT LESSON Linda Ginter Brown

1 Samuel 17:32-49: David said to Saul, "Let no one's heart fail because of him; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." Saul said to David, "You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth." But David said to Saul, "Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God."

David said, "The LORD, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine." So Saul said to David, "Go, and may the LORD be with you!" Saul clothed David with his armor; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. David strapped Saul's sword over the armor, and he tried in vain to walk, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, "I cannot walk with these; for I am not used to them." So David removed them. Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the wadi, and put them in his shepherd's bag, in the pouch; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine. The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance. The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field." But David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. This very day the LORD will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the LORD does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the Lord's and he will give you into our hand." When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Philistine. David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

*HYMN OF RESPONSE #573 It Is Well with My Soul
VILLE DU HAVRE

This text is a remarkable expression of faith born of grief. The author and active Presbyterian layman who had just lost four daughters in a tragic shipwreck, wrote it while sailing to Paris to meet his wife, who had survived. The tune was named for the ship that sank.

June Offering:

One Great Hour of Sharing

"Nobody hungry, nobody thirsty, shade from the sun, shelter from the wind, for the Compassionate One guides them, takes them to the best springs."

–Isaiah 49:10

The One Great Hour of Sharing offering began 72 years ago and is still a tangible way American Baptists provide for the human needs of our world. When you give to One Great Hour of Sharing, you deploy resources to people in need all around the world. Through sustainable development projects, our partners provide life-giving water and other critical resources that help communities reinvent and reimagine what is possible. When water comes to a village, people are safer, healthier, and more free to pursue learning and growth opportunities. Let love flow, and share more than just water. Please give generously this month to the One Great Hour of Sharing offering. Special OGHS offering envelopes are available in the pew racks.

"God's Wonderful Creation"

July 19-23 @ 9:30-Noon

PreK – 5th Grade

This summer at VBS we'll be exploring passages of Scripture that speak of God's creation. Through music, stories, activities, art and more, we will learn about the goodness of God's creation and God's love and care for us; about how creation praises and honors God; and how we are a new creation in Christ.

If you would like to help out with VBS this year, we are looking for adults to serve as group leaders and to help out with snack preparation. You can also help us decorate our VBS spaces at First Baptist on Saturday, July 10th at 10am.

Registration materials are now available online at www.fbcdayton.org and on the table by the church office. We will be engaging in COVID-safe practices (masking, hand-washing/disinfecting, physical distancing) throughout the week. And in order to prepare accordingly we have set a registration deadline of July 1st.

If you have questions and/or would like to help out please speak with Ray Landis (chair of Christian Education) or Pastor Jason Alspaugh (jalspaugh@fbcdayton.org).

Rebuilding Together Dayton

Summer Volunteer Opportunities

Elderly homeowners often have trouble keeping up their yards and need assistance with jobs such as painting, pulling weeds, mowing and mulching flower beds. Serving in this way helps homeowners age in place safely! We are looking for volunteer groups to join us in serving Dayton homeowners this summer! If you have an interest in forming a group to join us, please email info@rtdayton for more information.

Building Bridges Bible Study
