Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee ..... HYMN TO JOY

*All Thy works with joy surround Thee, earth and heaven reflect Thy rays, stars and angels sing around Thee, center of unbroken praise.
 Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadow, flashing sea, singing bird and flowing fountain call us to rejoice in Thee.*

#27 Morning Has Broken
 BUNESSAN

Morning Has Broken was first published in 1931, with lyrics written by author Eleanor Farjeon. It was set to a traditional Scottish Gaelic tune known as Bunessan, named after a village in the Ross of Mull. The tune was likely written in the 1800s, and was collected in the early 20th century, which helped it raise prominence. Eleanor Farjeon was a writer of books for children, many of which gained her a place in British nurseries.

RECOGNITION OF TEACHERS (NAMES LISTED ON PG. 7)

Janet Landis
 Board of Christian Education Chair

Ephesians 4:11-12 - The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ.

Today we celebrate the ministry of those who have served as our Sunday School teachers and helpers, Children's Messengers, and youth group leaders in the past year. We ask that they would come forward as their names are read so that we may recognize them and offer a prayer of thanksgiving.

PRAYER (IN UNISON)

Loving God, we thank you for our teachers. They have brought the stories of Scripture to life, shared the good news with us, cared for us, questioned with us, and sown seeds of faith, and we give you thanks through Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God now and forever. Amen.

Listening for the Word of God

UNISON PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

Emory Tyson, Leader

LORD, open our hearts and minds by the power of your Holy Spirit, that as the scriptures are read and your Word is proclaimed, we may hear with joy what you say to us today. Amen.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON: Acts 2:1-21

Emory Tyson

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs--in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Leader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God!

PSALTER LESSON: Psalm 104:24-34, 35b

Benjamin Ryan

O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures. Yonder is the sea, great and wide, creeping things innumerable are there, living things both small and great. There go the ships, and Leviathan that you formed to sport in it. These all look to you to give them their food in due season; when you give to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things. When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust. When you send forth your spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the ground. May the glory of the LORD endure forever; may the LORD rejoice in his works--who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke. I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praise to my God while I have being. May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD. Bless the LORD, O my soul. Praise the LORD!

Leader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

People: Thanks be to God!

*FELLOWSHIP HYMN

#228 A Rushing, Mighty Wind
FESTAL SONG

The Holy Spirit is so powerful that it created a sound like a Mighty Rushing Wind from heaven in New Testament Acts 2. The Holy Spirit is a teacher, comforter, guide and it infilled the believers and enabled them to speak in a foreign language, previously unknown to them, to complete strangers about the power of Jesus.

CALL TO PRAYER

#399 O Lord, Hear My Prayer
Taize Community

O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer: when I call answer me.
O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer. Come and listen to me.
The Lord is my song, the Lord is my praise: all my hope comes from God.
The Lord is my song, the Lord is my praise: God, the well-spring of life.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE - "Dear Mama God"

Lottie Tyson

THE LORD'S PRAYER (Debts/Debtors)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CHORAL ANTHEM

Chancel Choir
Dr. William Henry Caldwell, Conductor

O Be Joyful ..... Franz Schubert

O be joyful, joyful in the Lord, O be joyful all ye lands.
Serve the Lord with gladness and come before His presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord He is God. It is He that hath made us and not we ourselves.
We are His people and the sheep of His pasture. O go your way into His gates, into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise. Be thankful unto Him and speak good of His name.
Praise and glory be to the Father. Praise and glory be to His name.
Glory, glory, glory be to the Father almighty. Let His name be praised forever.
Glory to God and praise His name. Amen.

#272 They'll Know We Are Christians
ST. BRENDAN'S

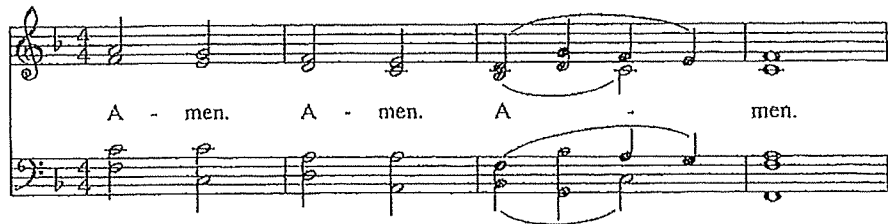

We are one in the Spirit, and nothing can destroy the unity that God Himself has formed. As individual members of the one Body of Christ, we should do everything possible to recognize and reflect our oneness in Christ. This song is very popular to church goers that are baby boomers as it was celebrated during a period when using the guitar and other folk instruments was generally frowned upon by the traditionalist and conservative church.

Bicentennial Celebration/Founders Sunday

Sunday, May 26, 2024

10:00 Worship Service / 11:30 Bicentennial Celebration Lunch

On Sunday, May 26, internationally acclaimed operatic tenor Cameo Humes will join the Chancel Choir of First Baptist Church of Dayton in observance of the church's 200th anniversary as an American Baptist congregation. During the morning worship service at 10:00 a.m., Mr. Humes will sing Sanctus, the solo in the Mass of Saint Cecilia by Charles Gounod. Mr. Humes has performed on operatic stages throughout the world but considers the Lyric Opera of Chicago to be his home. He will present a selection during the postlude. Cameo is a graduate of the Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music and for years was an adjunct professor in the Department of Fine and Performing Arts at Central State University where he worked with Dr. William Henry Caldwell.

Part-Time Custodian

First Baptist Church of Dayton is looking for a part-time custodian, beginning at 10-15 hours per week with possibility of more hours in future. Duties and work schedule are flexible, to be trained and begin work in coordination with current custodian. Interested persons should contact Pastor Kent Berghuis or Jonathon Wolfe, chair of the Trustees.

Summer Teachers Needed for Kids Sunday School 2024

We are seeking volunteers to help with our Kids One-Room Sunday School Class (preK-5) this summer (June 9 thru Sept. 1). There is a sign-up sheet posted on the bulletin board in the main hallway. Note that there are two slots for each Sunday—one for the person who will teach, leading the reading/discussion of scripture; the other for the person who would provide a craft project to help the kids connect with the lesson. Please speak with Pastor Jason or Janet Landis, chair of CE. They will also be on hand to provide resources, supplies, etc., throughout the summer.
